CAPAC: KEEPING SCORE FOR NEW CANADIAN MUSIC

CAPAC is the Composers, Authors, and Publishers Association of Canada. It operates quietly, more or less out of sight, but it's one of the most important musical organizations in the country.

Its major task is to collect licence fees from the organizations which use music, and distribute the money to the composers whose music is being performed. CAPAC is by far the largest organization of its type in Canada in terms of income collected and royalties distributed — and last year passed on more than $8 million to Canadian publishers and composers.

CAPAC supports a variety of efforts to spread the work of Canadian composers, and offers assistance and guidance to composers involved in the practical day-to-day business of music. It publishes a magazine, The Canadian Composer, 10 times each year, and is deeply involved in efforts to have Canada's outdated copyright laws brought into line with today's changing conditions.

If you need to know more about CAPAC, and how it helps keep score for Canadian composers and Canadian music, please call. CAPAC has a warm welcome for everyone involved in Canadian music.

the princess of the stars

"WITHOUT man THE WORLD WAS BORN AND WITHOUT HIM IT WILL END"

this is the story of the Princess of the Stars, daughter of the Sun-God and herself a Goddess.
Her name is in the stars and you have seen it there.
Each night she looked down on earth,
blessing it with kisses of light.

One night she heard a mournful cry coming up from the forest.
it was Wolf, howling at the moon, his double.
The Princess leaned over the forest to see who was singing,
but in leaning down so far she fell from heaven.
Suddenly she appeared before Wolf in a great flash of light.
But Wolf, frightened to see the stars so close,
lashed out at the Princess,
wounding her.

She ran bleeding into the forest, leaving dew wherever she went,
which was nearly everywhere, since she had no idea where to run.
By morning she found herself at the edge of a lake and slipped into the water to bathe her wounds.

But there something caught hold of her, dragging her down.
In vain she struggled.
In the end the waters closed over her.
you may see the stars of her crown at the tip of your paddle,
but the Princess you will not see.
The Three-Horned Enemy
holds her captive at the bottom of the lake, and the dawn mist is the sign of her struggling.

"Music, to create harmony, must investigate discord."

No, that isn't a remark of Charles Ives or of John Weinzwieg, but of Plutarch. His words were true at the time of the Roman Empire and they remain valid in our day too. Canadian composers have created and will continue to create music which investigates all of the artistic possibilities of sound. Come to the Canadian Music Centre and investigate the investigators.

Support from P.R.O. Canada...

Performing Rights Organization of Canada Limited was formed in 1940 to license the performance of music, and in turn distribute royalties to those who composed the music. It has grown to where it represents today nearly 13,000 Canadian authors, composers and music publishers.

Since its beginnings the policy of P.R.O. Canada has been to promote contemporary music, especially Canadian, and to assist wherever possible young composers attempting to compete in the world of music.

- P.R.O. Canada offers $6,000 annually to young composers in its Young Composers' Competition.
- It encourages the performance of Canadian music through various programmes, including the P.R.O. Canada Orchestra Awards competition.
- Concerts of contemporary music at home and overseas are supported financially and otherwise by P.R.O. Canada.
- Personnel are constantly available for advice or consultation at offices in Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver.
- P.R.O. Canada promotes Canadian composers and their music through the publication of French and English biographical brochures (38 to date). These are available free.

P.R.O. Canada is delighted to see included in this year's New Music Concerts programmes works by affiliates R. Murray Schafer, Timothy Sullivan, Robert Rosen and John Thrower; also works by Steve Reich and Mauricio Kagel, licensed in Canada by P.R.O. Canada.
